

Boulevard United Methodist Church on Broad

Epiphany begins with the appearance of the Magi who saw the promise in the stars and crossed the desert to pay homage to the newly born King. Now at the other end of the season comes another astonishing epiphany scene—Jesus being joined in glory by Elijah and Moses. Both stories are “a showing forth,” describing who Jesus truly is and will be. The Transfiguration is indeed a fitting end to the season.

Of course it is also the gateway to Lent.

Transfiguration Sunday
4:00 pm at 1837 W Broad St.

Greeting

Rev. Drew Willson

Opening Words

For holy boldness to enter the cloud,
For grace to worship you
For spiritual senses that perceive your glory,
We praise you, O God.

To where earth touches the heavens,
To the place of meeting,
To the sound of your voice,
To the Word made luminescent in Jesus,
Carry us!
