Death destroyed. Hope restored. The task of those who bear the image of God is to bring this testimony to everyone. It is a familiar story. And the next generation deserves to hear it.

Dismissal with Blessing

Luke 24:1-12

But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they came to the tomb, taking the spices that they had prepared. ²They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, ³but when they went in, they did not find the body. ⁴While they were perplexed about this, suddenly two men in dazzling clothes stood beside them. ⁵The women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen. ⁶Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, ⁷that the Son of Man must be handed over to sinners, and be crucified, and on the third day rise again." ⁸Then they remembered his words, ⁹and returning from the tomb, they told all this to the eleven and to all the rest. ¹⁰Now it was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them who told this to the apostles. ¹¹But these words seemed to them an idle tale, and they did not believe them. ¹²But Peter got up and ran to the tomb; stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths by themselves; then he went home, amazed at what had happened.

NURTURE

caring for one another and for our growth as disciples

{Inward}

WE ARE PRAYING for Jim and his family, Chris Gregory, the Anderson family, the Kirkland family, the United Methodist Church, Grayson Foy, Nancy Tate, and Bishop Sharma Lewis. Wish to add or restore a name? Say so via the offering plate or the church's e-mail address.

CHILDREN'S CHURCH for infants - 5 years of age begins after the children's moment. They rejoin us for Communion. Our childcare provider is employed by Grace Covenant Child Development Center.

THE PASSING OF THE PEACE today remembers Saint Patrick. In Christian community, signs of peace are often exchanged following a time of confession or prior to sharing the Lord's Supper. This morning, we pass the peace simply to bless one another.

YOUR SUPPORT of this year's Lenten mission focus is apparent in the form of dollars and hours. $800 is Shalom Farms/Feedmore bound!

The attempt to track hours online may have been a flop. But with a little investigation, it would seem that together we gave well over 40 hours (the goal) via The Pace Center, Belmont UMC food pantry, and Doorways.

The photo is from Doorways, where several Boulevardians pitched in to serve supper earlier this week. Next mission focus: Safe Harbor. More about this, next week~

The Great Storm is Over

by Bob Franke || as performed by John McCutcheon

The thunder and lightning gave voice to the night,
The little lame child cried aloud in her fright,
Hush little baby, a story I'll tell,
Of a love that has conquered the powers of hell.

Alleluia, the great storm is over,
Lift up your wings and fly!
Alleluia, the great storm is over,
Lift up your wings and fly!

Sweetness in the air and justice on the wind
Laughter in the house where the mourners have been
The deaf shall have music, the blind have new eyes
The standards of death taken down by surprise.

Alleluia, the great storm is over...

Release for the captives, an end to the wars
New streams in the desert, new hope for the poor,
The little lame children will dance as they sing,
And play with the bears and the lions in spring.

Alleluia, the great storm is over...

Hush little baby, let go of your fear,
The lord loves his own and your mother is here,
The child fell asleep as the lantern did burn,
The mother sang on 'til her bridegroom's return.

Alleluia, the great storm is over...
